Be your invoice in a way that you will be able to find and recognize - Try the name of the clients - invoice #Numbersend the invoice via email or mail.Ready To customize your invoices and be paid in your business bank account? There are some options for invoice numbers: SEQUENCIANCE NUMBER - This method allows you to store all the invoices in a folder and it is useful if you do not want to organize your invoices per customer. Here are the main benefits of using MS Word as your business billing solution: No fees - Some invoice software packages incur a heavy purchase price or require undergoing signature rates. According to a study of the usability of software and research laboratory, the most legible sources are arial, courier and verdana, with times New Roman the otnemagap otnemagap od otnemicnev ed atad a e arutaf ad ofAssime ed atad Å odived otnemagaP / otnemagaP / ataD .odireferp be displayed near the top of the document, usually directly below the header. In MS Word, you can use an AutoNew macro that will automatically create a sequential number for each new invoice, avoiding the potential for duplicated or skipped invoice numbers.Individual numbering per client eÅÅÅ With this method, you can create separate invoice folders for each client, and you may wish to include the clientÅÅAs name within the invoice number, one example being eÅÅÅJones1,eÅÅÅ While this may be your preferred method, it means that you will need to insert the invoice number manually instead of using MS WordÅÅAs sequential numbering function. Your payment details may include the following sections:An appropriate heading (bolded) e.g. eÅÅÅPlease make a payment toÅÅÅBeneficiary (Company) NameBeneficiary Account NumberBank Name and AddressBank Swift CodeIBAN NumberIf you accept other payment methods such as PayPal, insert the relevant logo, resize and position it, and if you are sending the invoice electronically, add a hyperlink to direct the customer straight to the web payment portal.You may also wish to include a simple eÅÅÅThank you for your businessÅÅÅ in its own text box or within the document footer as a friendly sign-off to your customers.Saving & Sending Your InvoiceYouÅÅÅve created your invoice, and now you need to send it to your customer for payment. Across the top row, you should add the following headings:ID eÅÅÅ This is a sequential number, usually starting with eÅÅÅ01,eÅÅÅ for quick reference if needed.DESCRPTION eÅÅÅ This may include details on items such as services, materials, labor, and customer discounts. Using MS Word, you can save the invoice as a PDF file then attach it to an email prior to sending. Using MS Word, you can select the Automatic Date feature that automatically inserts the date for you. It is one of the more recognizable and user-friendly word processing applications, and there are countless tutorials available if needed. If this is the case, you may prefer to insert the invoice and payment due dates manually. Invoice NumberIf you send multiple invoices out, numbering them allows you to track them more easily. This guide offers information on the benefits of using Word, and how to use the program to create an invoice from scratch. One benefit of the PDF format is that the customer will be able to open and view it easily in any browser. As examples, MS Word canÅÅÅ be used for complex equations, and it canÅÅÅ automate calculations. Secondly, PDF documents are secure and are eÅÅÅread-only,eÅÅÅ meaning that they cannot be altered once sent.
